

Indiana Department of Revenue

News Release

---

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 2, 2004

Contact: Cathy Henninger
317/233-3070

MEDIA ADVISORY

As part of the State of Indiana's collection efforts, Indiana Department of Revenue is posting on the Internet the names of delinquent taxpayers who have been identified as having outstanding tax liabilities. In accordance with Indiana Public Law 1365-2004, the tax warrants published on this website are between two and ten years old since their first issuance, and the liability is more than $1,000.

The INdebt Program went live as of 7:00 am July 1st. The warrants can be viewed on the Department's web site at www.IN.gov/dor under the heading "INdebt." Searches of the data base can be done in several ways: individual name, business name and/or county.

In addition, the web site contains information explaining the INdebt Program, details on how a taxpayer can have warrant(s) removed and frequently asked questions (FAQ).

--30--